

Student Contract

I, _____ (print your name) understand and agree to abide by the following provisions and guidelines of the student program and other verbal and written guidelines as may be given by the student leaders.

I will strive to be punctual. I will attend all worships, training sessions, and other announced meetings. From 9:00 am to 12:30 pm, Sunday through Thursday, I will be prepared to give my personal agenda second place to the agenda of the program.

I will make every effort to learn and apply the canvass that is provided to me.

I will cooperate with the program leaders in achieving the goal that the Lord has set before us; to spread the gospel through Student Literature Evangelism. I will not undermine the leadership of the program in any way.

I will remember at all times to avoid the appearance and practice of evil with regard to my conduct with members of the opposite sex.

I will remember that my body is the temple of the Holy Ghost and will abstain from harmful substances, caffeine, and flesh foods.

I will observe the quiet time, lights out and rising time policies set forth by my leaders.

I will seek a deeper relationship with my Savior during this program, taking time for daily personal prayer and reading.

I give the leadership of the program permission to search my belongings during the summer if and when I am suspected of possessing illegal substances.

I have read and understood the financial arrangements of the student scholarship program including the LIABILITY section.

I will refrain from the following activities during the period of my involvement with the student program: Attending theater, watching television programming or rented movies, playing video games, listening to questionable¹ music.

Signed: _____

Date _____

¹ Classifying music as “questionable” is, even by definition, subjective. If you have questions about your music, please consult your program head. Final decisions are made by the administrative committee (the leadership team) of each program. Music that fails to pass this committee will be kept secure until the end of the program and returned to the owner.